Water People Theater is a Latina-led non-profit organization that believes in the transformative power of theater. For over two decades, we have been dedicated to producing socially-engaged bilingual and inclusive theater with and for diverse audiences. We aim to inspire multicultural audiences to become change-makers contributing to a more equitable, just, and inclusive world.

To leverage the power of high-quality theater and educational offerings to advance social values, defend human rights, and inspire people to become changemakers.
